Open classes, shown in each section of the syllabus, are open to all candidates whether professional or amateur. No competitor may take part more than once in the same class, except on a different instrument.

Performers who have studied with the Adjudicator may not compete.

6. MUSIC

Editions: The prescribed editions of music and key, where specified, must be used.

Accompaniment: If a selected piece has been composed and published with an accompaniment, it must be performed with that accompaniment in order to qualify for adjudication. Recorded accompaniments are not permitted unless specified in the syllabus.

Own Choice: Title, composer and performance time must be stated on the entry form at the time of entry. Only notated items may be offered unless otherwise specified in Jazz/Improvisation classes. Set pieces in this syllabus may not be offered in Own Choice classes, and no item may be included in more than one class.

Any change of piece must be notified to the relevant Section Secretary before 1 October.

The adjudicator will take into consideration the artistic merit of self-chosen pieces, i.e., whether the standard of music etc. is worthy of the class in which it is to be performed.

Where the chosen piece fails to meet the designated criteria for a class, the competitor will not be considered for a place amongst the winners and their mark/category may be withheld. In all cases of Own Choice, a copy of the piece selected must be provided to the adjudicator at the time of competing. Please do not send music to the Section Secretary unless requested.

7. PERFORMING RIGHTS

This Festival has entered into an agreement with the Authors' Licensing and Collection Society. This means that entrants do not have to seek copyright permission for any poetry, prose or solo dramatic items performed to a time limit of 10 minutes.

Performers and teachers should know that this will ensure authors are directly reimbursed as a consequence of their works being performed. Duologues and group dramatic items are not covered by this agreement and copyright for these items must be sought by performers at the time of entry. Solo dramatic items must be announced with title and author at the time of performance to qualify for copyright indemnity and the performer must not change the words or gender of the character.

8. PHOTOCOPIES

Photocopies will not be accepted except in the following circumstances: when an Own Choice work is selected from a publication containing several different works and is not available separately, one copy may be made for the use of the adjudicator provided that the performer has already purchased his/her copy.

The photocopy will be retained and destroyed by the Festival immediately after the event.

9. TIME LIMITS

These, where set, will be strictly adhered to. Any performers who overrun the time will be stopped and will not be considered for a place amongst the winners. Their mark/category may also be withheld. It is not acceptable to offer only part of a movement or piece.

10. TIME OF COMPETITION

Notice of the time of competition will be sent to every competitor at least one week before the Festival. If by then no notice has been received, an immediate enquiry should be sent to the relevant Section Secretary.

11. GALA CONCERT

On the recommendation of the adjudicators, selected participants will be invited to perform in the Gala Concert. They will be notified in writing after the completion of the competitions in each Section.

ADJUDICATORS

Concerto Class for Advanced Players &

General Instruments and Strings:

Alison Moncrieff Kelly, ARAM, ARCM - is a highly experienced cellist, teacher, ABRSM examiner and performer who also has extensive experience leading large groups of tutors in early years, junior, secondary and higher education settings. She is a versatile leader in music education, training and performance, who has performed in national and international projects at a high level. As a member of the ensemble Triangulus, Alison recorded the complete works of Hummel for piano trio, and has also recorded the complete works of Stanford for cello and piano, as well as a series of solo cello recordings. Alison has been particularly involved with the training of talented young musicians. She has led programmes for inclusivity with children outside the mainstream musical profile, in particular in her work at Blackheath Conservatoire and Rye Arts Festival, where she set up successful outreach programmes. As an ABRSM grade and diploma examiner, Alison has travelled widely. She has also given workshops and presentations as an ABRSM teacher consultant and was the cello consultant on the current ABRSM syllabus.

Winds:

Gillian Johnston, AGSM - is a graduate of the Guildhall School of Music and Drama. Her freelance bassoon playing was combined with a busy teaching career, and she created Harpenden Musicale. This was a music school for all ages and abilities, which grew very quickly to a membership of one thousand pupils a week. Musicale teaches pupils in its premises, and also has an outreach programme for local primary schools, as well as summer music courses at various locations. Gill was also a co-founder of the National Children's Wind and Chamber Orchestras of Great Britain. She has always been passionately interested in encouraging children to 'make music' and thoroughly enjoys adjudicating at festivals all over the country and abroad. Gill has four children, all of whom are professional musicians.
